1. PURPOSE

The Central Intelligence Agency Emergency Security Patrol is established 25X1A6A to protect classified material, installations, property, and personnel of the Agency in the Washington, D. C. metropolitan area in the event of an emergency, including fire, natural disaster, enemy attack, or other circumstances. 25X1A6A

2. ORGANIZATION AND COMPOSITION

- a. The Director of Security is the Commanding Officer of the CIA Emergency Security Patrol and shall appoint such officers and members as may be required.
- b. The Security Patrol will consist of employees of the Security Office designated by the Commanding Officer. The Security Patrol may be augmented with other employees of the Agency at the discretion of the Commanding Officer, selected by him with the concurrence of the Operating Officials having administrative responsibility for these respective employees. In an emergency, and on an interim basis, the Commanding Officer is authorized to augment the Security Patrol by drafting other employees of the Agency (except those individuals specifically designated for other specific emergency assignments by Operating Officials) upon his own authority without prior concurrence of the administrative supervisors of such employees. Operating Officials include the Assistant Directors of the Office of the Deputy Director (Intelligence), the Chiefs of Administrative Offices of the Office of the Deputy Director (Administration), the Chiefs of Senior Staffs and Area Divisions of the Office of the Deputy Director (Plans), the Director of Training, the Assistant Director for Communications, and the Assistant Director for Personnel.
- c. The size and composition of the Security Patrol shall be determined by the Commanding Officer in a manner to provide effective coverage of Agency buildings in the Washington, D. C. metropolitan area as may be required. 25X1A6A
- d. Security Patrol members shall be equipped with appropriate badges, brassards, and identification cards to be displayed only when activated for emergency duties.

3. AUTHORITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- a. The Director of Security is authorized to assume command over the property and personnel of the Agency for the purpose of protection at the scene of an emergency as defined in paragraph 1 above, and to activate the Security Patrol when, in his opinion, such action is warranted.
- b. The Director of Security, as Commanding Officer of the Security Patrol, is responsible for:
  - (1) Organizing, training, and equipping the Security Patrol;
  - (2) Ensuring that Security Patrol members are qualified and authorized to carry firearms in the performance of their duties in the protection of classified material, property, and Agency personnel under the provisions of section 6(d) of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 208); and
  - (3) Establishing and maintaining necessary liaison with officials of other appropriate agencies and departments of Government in the implementation of the responsibilities set forth herein.
- c. Members of the Security Patrol, when activated upon orders of the Commanding Officer, or when drafted as provided for in paragraph 2b above, shall be -
  - (1) Subject to the direction of the Commanding Officer and officers designated by him, and shall perform duties as directed without regard to their normal duties and responsibilities.
  - (2) vested with all necessary authority for the protection of classified material, installations, property, and personnel of the Agency in Washington, D. C. metropolitan area [REDACTED] under the authority given to the Commanding Officer under [REDACTED] emergency conditions. 25X1A6A 25X1A6A
- d. Agency personnel will cooperate fully with Security Patrol members by following all orders or instructions given by them in the performance of their duties and responsibilities. Display of identification insignia shall be presumptive evidence of activation of the Security Patrol for the performance of its authorized functions.
- e. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to alter the responsibilities of the Chiefs of Major Components and Building Emergency Officers appointed by them for emergency action.
